ADAC HOCKENHEIM HISTORIC

The ADAC Hockenheim Historic features many exciting racing series with thrilling highlights and revives the splendour of old times. They will be honouring one of the greatest car racing drivers of all time, the legendary „Flying Scotsman“, JIM CLARK. The gifted racing driver's two Formula 1 World Championship titles in the 1963 and 1965 seasons still resonate, as does his tragic accidental death in a Formula 2 race in Hockenheim on 7 April 1968.

Experience the breathtaking flair of times long gone, the love of less professional, down-to-earth motorsport, but always characterised by a great deal of passion and dedication.

A great racing weekend by racing enthusiasts for racing enthusiasts is guaranteed!

Make sure you get the right package for you and your business customers!
